FATHER JINTO'S GOOD NEWS:

On 12 June, Father Jinto's sister gave birth to little Chris Biju in India and both mother and baby are doing well. Father Jinto would like to thank everyone who prayed for his sister. These photos of baby Chris, Father Jinto's mother, father and sister, probably make him a bit homesick but are beautiful keepsakes of such a happy event.

ROSTERS: New rosters for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Altar Society and Counters are in the Sacristy at St Patrick's. If you are on any or all of these rosters please take a copy home with you.

Mary MacKillop – An Australian Like Us

Mary, Annie and Lexie MacKillop used both the Penola church and part of their rented cottage for classes. Their brother John was able to convert a rented stable into a school house, so on 19 March 1866 St Joseph's School was opened. Locals began talking on that day when Mary appeared in a black dress, but were delighted that the new school had 33 pupils and was doing very well. Mary MacKillop wrote to her mother, 'When I was (Lexie's) age (15) I began first to long for a Religious Life.' (1866). It is presumed that she would have intended entry into the Melbourne Sisters of Mercy. In Penola, however, she saw the need for a new kind of Religious Congregation: one whose members could live in isolated places, be free to move where needed, and go where other nuns could not. Fr Woods encouraged Mary MacKillop's Religious vocation and, when two ladies of similar mind joined her, he submitted to the Bishop his plan for their Rule. As Director General of the Siocesan schools, he invited Mary and her Sisters to Adelaide in June 1867. Because they were prepared to be in places where they were deprived of Mass on weekdays and often Sundays as well, the Sisters became 'Church' for the locals. Lay Ministry Program Semester 2, 2010

Established in 2008, the Lay Ministry Program offers formation for parishioners involved in or wishing to become involved in Parish ministries. Commencing in August, there will be another round of training. Formation will be offered in six areas - Minister for Liturgy, Minister for Music, Minister for the Word, Minister for Youth and Young Adults, Minister for Catechesis and Minister for Loss and Bereavement. All ministries involve participation in an initial formation program, leadership in the local Parish community and a commitment to ongoing formation for a period of three years and a commissioning. For further information and an application form, contact the Parish office. Applications must be endorsed by the Parish Priest.

Please download form  Lay Ministries 2010_Sem2_jh.pdf or phone the Pastoral Centre.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:
July 11 Humility
Total dependence on God is the hallmark of humility. As Christians, we are to be filled with humility, not pride. We acknowledge that God is the only source of all that we have, are, and ever will be. However, humility does not mean we think less of ourselves. Humility simply means that we think of ourselves less. Christians have a special calling - to deny self and seek the will of God. When did you last seek God's will? (With thanks to The Archdiocese of Winnipeg)

A SPECIAL INVITATION TO THE ROME CANONISATION OF MARY MACKILLOP

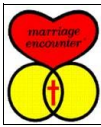

Sr Maria Casey RSJ, who is the Postulator for the Cause of Canonisation of Mary MacKillop is encouraging Australian Catholics to join, wherever possible, in celebrating the canonization as a recognition of the holiness of Mary MacKillop's life. It is hoped that many will seriously consider travelling to Rome to be a part of this significant moment in history. Parishioners are encouraged to contact Harvest, the Official tour operator at 222.canonisationtravel.com or 1300 467 663 to request an official tour brochure. There are a limited number of brochures at the back of the Church.

Pope's Encyclical, Charity in Truth One of the deepest forms of poverty a person can experience is isolation. If we look closely at other kinds of poverty, including material forms, we see that they are born from isolation, from not being loved or from difficulties in being able to love. Poverty is often produced by a rejection of God's love, by man's basic and tragic tendency to close in on himself, thinking himself to be self-sufficient or merely an insignificant and ephemeral fact, a "stranger" in a random universe. Man is alienated when he is alone, when he is detached from reality, when he stops thinking and believing in a foundation.' Excerpt from Caritas in Veritate (n.53), Pope Benedict XVI- Full text at: http://www.vatican.va/holy_father/benedict_xvi/encyclicals/documents/hf_ben-xvi_enc_20090629_caritas-in-veritate_en.html
