EMAIL FROM FATHER JOHN WAKELING Hello all,
The results of the MRI are not completely good. There are three lesions in the brain, two extra came up on the MRI. I undergo radical radiotherapy on Friday 11/6 at the Alfred Hospital. Following the radiotherapy my oncologist will then discuss with me the details and treatment of the adrenal glands. At present things are confusing and I am not sure what's happening. It is all coming too fast. I am sure that the good Lord will only give what he knows I will be able to deal

If you did not have the opportunity to come last year, we hope you are able to attend this session. It is primarily a formation session for new readers but also for those who have been carrying out this ministry for some time. It is an opportunity also to get together with others carrying out this vital ministry, and I particularly encourage you to come along if you have joined the roster in the last few years. Details: Saturday June 26 from 2.00pm-5.00pm at the Parish Pastoral Centre, Berowra Heights. Please let the Pastoral Centre know if you will be attending, on 9456 2450.

We would also like to congratulate these children on a very high level of commitment: Phillip Cullen for one year's membership of the Choir, Erica Messina for two years, Sarah Hogan, Georgia Hopkins and Alex Hurden for three years, Thomas Messina for four years, and Michaela de Souza for five years! This is a remarkable achievement, and we congratulate the children and their families.

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMENT

Catholic indigenous official sounds climate change alarm. Native of Poruma Island and member of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Catholic Council Dolly McGaughey said her home is being "eaten up by the sea". Part of the Diocese of Cairns, Poruma is home to 205 people who have traditionally lived by fishing. But Poruma, one of 274 islands in the Torres Strait archipelago, is drowning, says a report in the US Jesuits' America Magazine. Rising sea levels, storm surges and salinity in its freshwater wells are making the island uninhabitable. When Dolly McGaughey last returned to her island home, the severity of erosion shocked her. "It has all been eaten up by the sea. The beautiful white beaches of my childhood have gone underwater. Some of the trees I knew then are gone," she is cited saying.

Monday, 31 May 2010 will be remembered as an historic moment in Australia's battle to end extreme poverty. The Act to End Poverty was moved through the House of Representatives in record time due to pressure from 50,000 Australians represented by the Act to End Poverty Group. Through their work they have achieved a commitment on the public record to the Millenium Development Goals and the poverty reduction they represent, crucial in election year. Over the coming weeks and months, all Federal MPs will be called on to put their support for the Act to End Poverty on record. More info on: info@acttoendpoverty.com

The World Cup. The eyes of the world will be on South Africa this week as the World Cup begins. This is an opportunity for us to think about global community and cooperation and to consider countries we think little about – what do you know about Ghana, Cote d'Ivoire, Cameroon, Algeria ...? Do these countries matter only when we are playing against them?

The Pastoral Centre will be closed from 2pm on Tuesday 29 June so that staff can attend the Blessing and Opening of New School Facilities at St Bernard's Catholic School. The Centre will re-open at 9.30am on Wednesday 30 June.
